TEAM BUILDING/DEVELOPMENT

How do different animal species determine leaders and specific roles in their pack or herd? Programs are offered to help you become better leaders, define group roles and increase productivity from your team.

We offer a variety of self-guided as well as facilitated programs.

- Wildlife Scavenger Hunt
- Digital Photo Hunts
- Self-guided tours including our Go Green Garden, Botanical Garden or numerous education kiosks

NEW!

The Cincinnati Zoo & Botanical Garden has teamed up with one of the best known venues for Team Development in the area, Camp Joy. The expert facilitators at Camp Joy combined with the unique educational environment of the Cincinnati Zoo make this experience "Zoonique".

Explore team development through the lens of "Five Keys of Functional Teams and Nature"

Trust – Conflict – Commitment – Accountability – Results

This unique experience will demonstrate how animals and plants in nature interact and how we can learn by observing these relationships and build stronger teams in the workplace.
